

NATIONAL ASSOCIATION OF STATE JUDICIAL EDUCATORS

“Fundamentals of Our Profession”

Sunday, August 8, 2010

Part I

8:30 a.m. – 10:00 a.m.

Introduction to National Association of State Judicial Educators (NASJE)

This session is designed for those new to NASJE in the past five years, but open to all.

Learn more about NASJE and its global network of judicial educators! The session will include information about membership benefits, different areas of NASJE’s involvement, a brief overview of NASJE’s history and much more! The session will be hosted by Ms. M. Christy Tull, President of NASJE, and Ms. Judith M. Anderson, President-Elect of NASJE.

Part II

10:15 a.m. – 5:00 p.m.

(Lunch on your own)

The Art and Science of Being a Judicial Branch Educator

This session is for everyone, no matter how long you have been with NASJE.

You will hear from fellow NASJE members about their “best practices” relating to course planning, creating our “presence,” applying adult learning theory & much more! We’ll review the fundamental skills, knowledge & attitudes needed to excel in judicial branch education. Participants will explore NASJE’s Mentor program which assures that new NASJE members have access to experienced judicial educators who can assist them in the early stages of their career. This session will be taught by Mari Kay Bickett, JD, Texas Center for the Judiciary, Ms. Ileen D. Gerstenberger, Washington Administrative Office of the Courts, and Mr. John Meeks, National Center for State Courts.

You must be pre-registered for this Sunday session. To sign up check the appropriate box on the enclosed registration form. There is no additional fee for this program.

Hope to see you there!
