You've read their books.
Now meet them on video as they address such critical questions as ...

What should adult educators keep in mind when designing adult learning experiences?

What does "teaching from the heart" mean and how can educators become "teachers from the heart"?

What does "culturally responsive teaching" mean, and how can adult educators put it into practice?

How can we create supportive, challenging, and effective learning environments?

Benefit from sixteen brief (3 to 8-minute) video interview segments conducted with nine adult educators.

Intended users:

Organizations and institutions that provide educational opportunities for adults and seek to enhance the performance of present and future adult educators.
